Your chaplaincy service

Spiritual, religious and pastoral care team

Embracing and nurturing the human spirit

Information for patients, carers and staff

A member of Cambridge University Health Partners

CPFT's chaplaincy team is a recovery-focused service offering spiritual, religious and pastoral support and care to people of all faiths, as well as people who do not have particular beliefs but who would like someone to talk to.

The chaplaincy team is supported by community faith leaders and by volunteers.

What we offer

- Groups for service users, staff and voluntary sector organisations
- Individual spiritual and pastoral support for service users, carers and staff
- Training for staff and voluntary sector organisations on spirituality, spiritual assessments
- Training for staff on the identification of spiritual needs
- Conferences and seminars
- Information for service users and staff on spirituality and religion
- A reflective multi-faith quiet space for prayer and/or time to just think things through
- Spiritual and religious resources - eg, Bible, Koran, prayer mats, prayer books, poetry, etc
- Regular services and workshops
- Contact on your behalf with faith leaders in the community
- Volunteering opportunities with chaplaincy
